country - it does not appear expedient to do more than abolish the duties now levied on Exports from Port to Port in the Provinces, and that unless this is done the relief granted to the Commerce of the Presidency by the abolition of the transit duty is in part lost, and that such relief is especially demanded by the circumstances of Canara and Malabar, observes that if grain is left free from duty and all other duties contained as at present the diminution of Revenue will be trifling and notices the loss of Revenue from the abolition of all dues at out Ports. For reasons assigned states he would not now exempt the produce brought for the consumption of Madras by Sea from duty. Directs the attention of the Board to the observations of the Collectors of South Arcot and Tanjore and desires them to point out any great abuse of the boon he should propose to confer upon the Provinces. Suggests that the modification of the duty on Paddy be brought under the consideration of the Government of India ——— 23d March 28d May No. 83
